

WRITE YOUR FUTURE WORKSHEET

WORKING ON YOUR SYSTEM FOR SUCCESS

Systems are essential to the success of a business; personal systems are equally important. Pivotal Growth's System for Success is a framework that supports executing your Write Your Future plan. This is a framework to build your own personal operating system for success.

Personal systems take intention to develop as they are unique to you. They need to align with your personality, attributes and your work. Enjoy visioning, reflection and planning.

1. A vision: Look to the future and plan how you want it to be
2. The destination: Design strategy, goals, and aspired leadership brand
3. Prioritized success drivers: Identify the systems, process, and personality attributes to leverage
4. An action plan: Prioritization of goals, success drivers and work to be done
5. Execute on change and activities: Focusing on activities such as learning, practice, training, coaching, and mentoring
6. Evaluate and practice: Check and re-check with self-assessment and formal and informal feedback
7. Plan reflection and measurement: Assess qualitative and quantitative measures of success

“The future depends on what you do today.” - Mahatma Gandhi

A Vision: Refresh your personal and professional 10-year vision.

➔ Chart your course to access your dreams and ambitions.

A Destination: Get clear on your strategy, goals and leadership brand.

➔ Write a success statement and goals. A vision or plan without goals remain just that, so write your future.

Prioritized Success Drivers: Identify the systems, process, and attributes to leverage. We've provided recommended drivers on next pages. You can find more insights here: What it takes to be a great leader

An action plan: Consider how you prioritize a plan including essential elements of execution such as:
